ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE POLICY

Students may not submit AI-generated writing as their own original work, use AI to complete their assignments, or misrepresent AI-generated content as their own written work. The Northern New England School of Banking Board of Trustees asks that each student provide a written statement at the end of their final paper that certifies they did not use AI to write their paper. All submitted papers must comply with this AI policy. Failure to comply will result in a failing grade and no certificate of completion will be awarded.
